NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY - FIVE

Lighting of "Y" by Intercollegiate Knights

Dear Bob,

Well, this will end a wonderful four years for you a D. V. U. I know you have enjoyed every day of it at least as far as I could see. You have great ambitions and a great future ahead of you and I know you will come out with untold blessings. I want to thank for all of the help you gave me in my classes like math and those themes. You probably thought I wasn't very bright, but I'm learning.

So long for now,

Don Lee

Dear Bob,

This year has been a great experiment for me (as I tell my folks when they see my grades) & an even greater experience. I found many friends here of every size, shape, & nature & then there was Bob. What a character! All you need to do is feed him & he'll be happy, but that is too continuous. I have sincerely enjoyed your friendship Bob & you really are a guy with tremendous drive & ambition & you therefore can't miss having a great future. Good luck to you always & watch out for the future gals.
Pat & buddy

Well, Bob, we are about to "split the blanket." I have really enjoyed knowing
 you. You are a boy
 that someday will go a long way. Don't forget that those that have been given more have to give more. I will always remember the great times we've had together and you will always have a friend.
 your old wife

An invitation to Reminisce . . .

Dick Stewart

Your campus

Here, is the campus . . . composite picture of an atmosphere of learning. Old buildings . . . mellowed from all the experience and knowledge contained within them . . . modern edifices representing modern education . . . new researches . . . things to come.

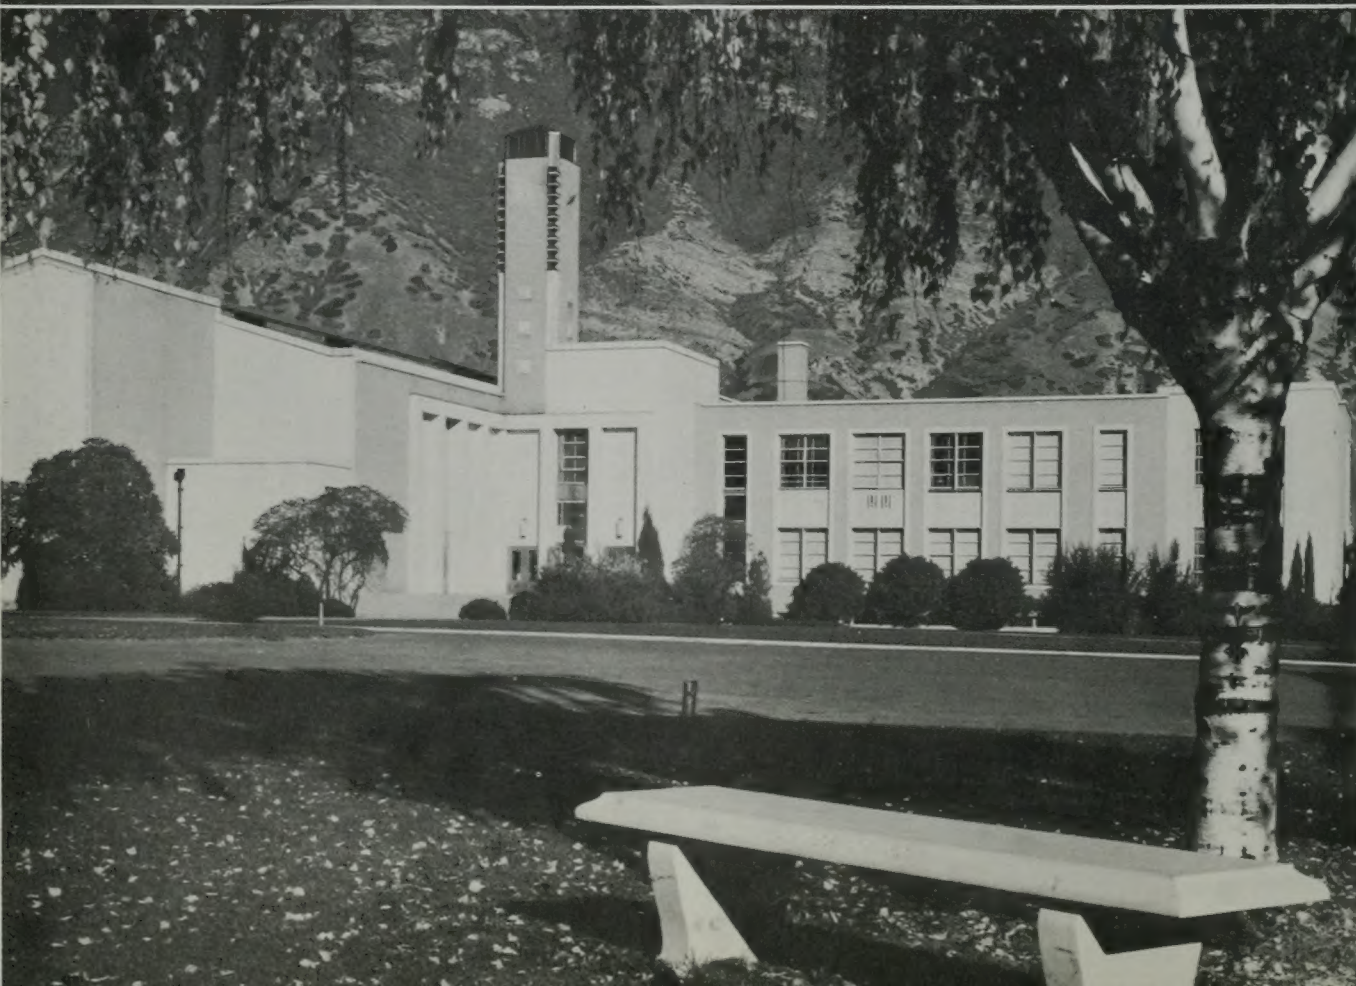

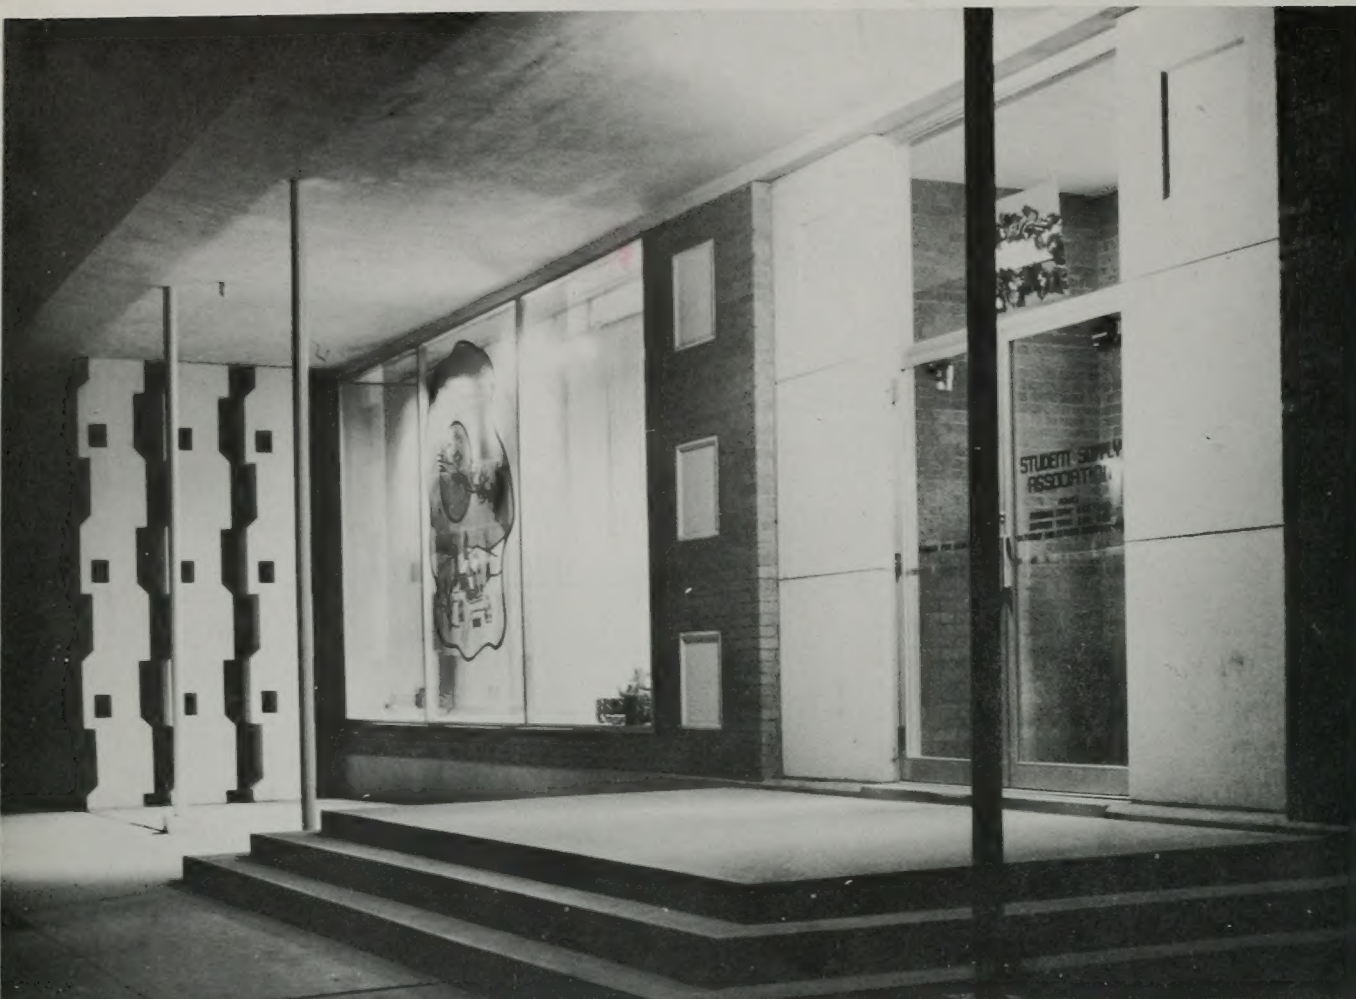

Trees . . . which wave and bend an unashamed ear when lovers stroll under them. Benches . . . where you basked in the Indian summer and early spring.

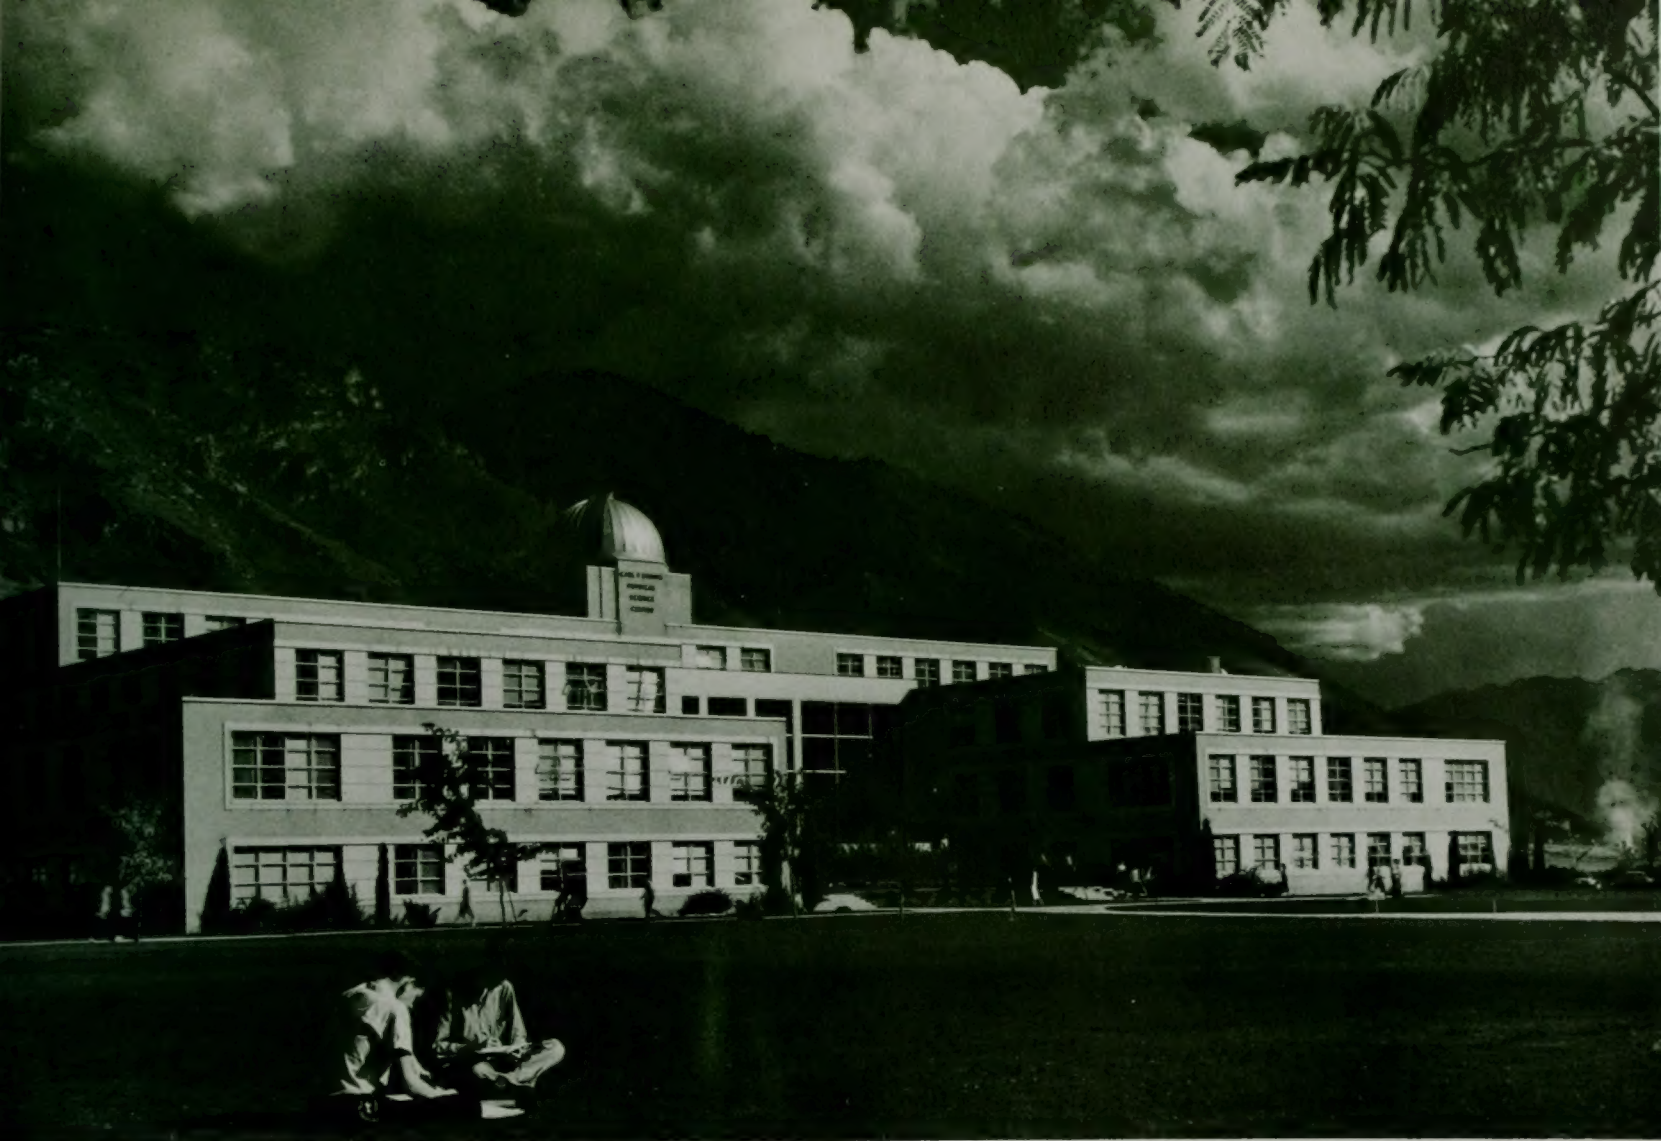

Grounds . . . white with holiday snow . . . green with the awakening of sleeping buds . . . walks not showing but representing thousands of footsteps as students rushed from class to class.

The stadium . . . witness of cheers of happiness . . . suspended silences . . . roars of excitement. Ballrooms . . . full of light remembrances . . . fluffy dresses . . . happy talk . . . rhythm. The Smith building . . . here religion was taught . . . you went to church . . . gave thanks to God for BYU.

Royalty of B.Y.U.

Royalty . . . from rex . . . meaning king. Queen . . . wife of a king . . . woman ruler . . . An old custom is to crown a man or woman king or queen of an event such as on May day or during the Mardi Gras season. BYU royalty is chosen for a similar purpose . . . attendants are chosen to assist rulers during their reign. Queens were chosen for the Sophomore Loan Fund Ball . . . Belle of the "Y" . . . Homecoming . . . Snow Carnival . . . Banyan Ball. The most preferred man and his attendants were the girl's choices for campus kings. In addition to this royalty the friendliest boy and girl were elected . . . Winners . . . those with the happiest smiles . . . the biggest supply of hellos.

Sports at B.Y.U.

Busy months of competition . . . when sweat-stained men gave all of their abilities to the final goal of victory . . . and sometimes failed to find it. Football . . . a game stressing physical endurance and peak muscular development; a bruising game which demands courage and gives only satisfaction to its weary players. Basketball . . . when tense men play their hardest . . . and body co-ordination reaches a fantastic limit . . . while every movement is spotlighted by thousands of eyes. Track . . . and a sheer joy of competition . . . when each record set is a point to be surpassed. All sports . . . played because men feel in themselves a need to excel, and at the end of the game . . . only calmness and satiated spirit. Training . . . self imposed restraints, and a responsibility felt towards team . . . and sometimes a miracle occurs as a group of separate men become a unit . . . acting and thinking as one entity.

Eddie Kimball . . . Director in charge of all BYU athletics . . . veteran coach.

Songleaders Francis Dain, Marilyn Worsley, Sandra Butler, Marilyn Abel, Dolly Carlson . . . synchronized rhythm.

B.Y.U. Sports . . . triumph and

A year of competition now in records . . . BYU fans saw their teams triumphant in some games . . . tragic in others. Fielded a strong football team . . . statistically . . . but strength failed to show where it would win games. Beginning with a green basketball team . . . and losing one of most promising players in Conference tragedy

. . . but still triumphant in upsetting all guessers . . . placing second behind powerful University of Utah. Minor sports distributed championships . . . showed high potential . . . and were experiencing good year for building.

pit of Utah and Mountain West . . . Capacity 11,000 roaring students . . . west bleachers shown.

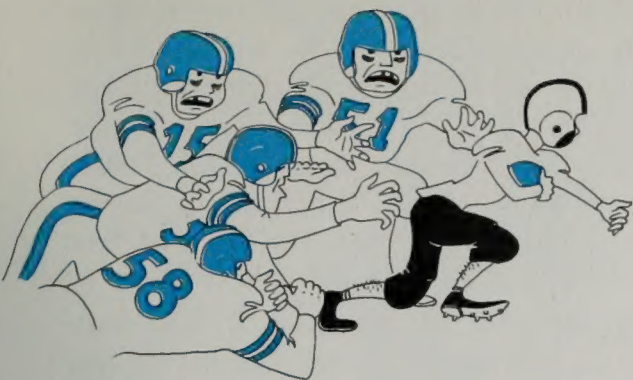

Jim Crittenden (head under arm) . . . Marion Probert . . . Scholastic All-American. Dick Felt . . . about to peel a grape.

Football . . . a tale of woe

Disappointed Cougar fans saw their football team win only one game during the season . . . ended up in the cellar of conference. In all games the Brighams led their opponents statistically . . . but were never quite able to beat them . . . Time ran out game after game . . . before winning touchdown crossed . . . Wagon-wheel trophy remained in hands of Utah Aggies . . . and University of Utah Redskins narrowly missed being beaten in season's biggest thriller. In all, however . . . the team, playing without "subsidy" . . . upheld highest traditions of sportsmanship . . . great ambassadors of school in leading autumn sport . . . under excellent hand of "Chick" Atkinson, head football coach.

Football coaches . . . kneeling, Owen Dixon, Dave Crowton; standing: Bob Bunker, head coach; Charles "Chick" Atkinson, Reed Nilsen.

New Mexico 21, BYU 12. First game of season slipped by disillusioned Cougars . . . who outplayed Lobos in every department statistically . . . Played at Y Stadium . . . where main cause of defeat appeared to be too many BYU fumbles . . . managed to drop ball twice as many times as opponents.

Arizona State 28, BYU 19. Racking up a 28-19 win after a BYU 19-0 half-time lead . . . Sun Devils capitalized on four Cougar fumbles . . . cats literally dropped their second game . . . played on home field. Paradoxically, Cougar scores also came from inopportune Sun Devil fumbles.

Colorado A & M 14, BYU 13. One point loss jinx followed team in their battle with Rams . . . fumbles followed also as Cats dropped ball within four yards of A&M goal . . . 14-13 score grew from BYU first blood in opening quarter . . . offense seemed good . . . as Brighams made 20 first downs to 7 for Rams.

University of Utah 12, BYU 7. A desperate Cougar drive to break Redskin lead failed in last two seconds of play . . . as time ran out before ball could be moved from Utah 9 yard line. Needed . . . one touchdown to break game wide open before largest crowd ever assembled in Y Stadium . . . officials ruled out last minute do-or-die attempt . . . Cougars marched 90 yards to make first touchdown . . . began final threat from their own 32 yard stripe.

Montana 7, BYU 19. Only game that the Brighams were able to win . . . televised to approximately one million fans . . . Montana scored first, but Cougars brought digits up to 19-7 in third quarter. BYU again had a 22-7 first down advantage . . . Homecoming game and part of large celebration . . . Grizzlies outplayed mostly on defense.

Utah State 45, BYU 13. Completely lost in Aggie Homecoming . . . as USAC kept wagonwheel . . . ran past hapless defense. Cougar's only score came from an early 80 yard drive and a third quarter Aggie fumble . . . USAC broke away in last quarter to score three touchdowns . . . Unlucky Cougar fumbles resulted in three of opponent's touchdowns.

Denver 20, BYU 0. Playing in Denver Homecoming . . . Cats allowed Pioneers to tie with Wyoming for conference first place . . . most of the game was played on BYU half of field. Cougars were unable to capitalize on their one potential touchdown threat which came from a DU fumble . . . Denver lost a touchdown after game was less than four minutes old on a penalty of ineligible receiver.

Wyoming 34, BYU 13. Cowboys bruised their way past Cougars as they scored five touchdowns . . . played in Y Stadium, game was the last of the year for Cowboys who were tied with Denver for Conference first place winners . . . two Cowboy touchdowns came from BYU fumbles, but in main . . . touchdowns result of hard, sustained drives.

Idaho 7, BYU 0. Vandals took a hard fought contest . . . marching 72 yards to make their touchdown . . . time once again ran out on Cougars as they attempted their only scoring threat on a pass from 10 yard line in the final quarter. Strong BYU defense hampered the hard-driving Vandals considerably.

Basketball . . . a tale of near Basketball . . . and Brigham Young University . . . two names nearly synonymous in the Mountain West and the nation . . . Experiencing a stormy season and ending with 13 wins and 13 losses, the Cougars more than once felt the coolness of a winter evening. Luckily . . . most losses came in pre-season play . . . when players were learning and growing . . . until they could compete with top national teams. Highlight of the season was the downing of high-flying University of Utah Redskins in an overtime classic. Brigham Young . . . contrary to pre-season selections . . . finished second only to Utah in the Skyline race. With only one senior graduating . . . the eye around the basketball center is toward next year . . . and another champion team.

Junior Activities

About to set off the firecracker held by Joan Grappendorf is Keith Thompson while Gordon Christensen and Terry O'Brien plug their ears during a lapse in the festivities at the Jr.-Soph. Exchange.

Ellen Keeler, Steve Barrett and Elaine Petersen look very pleased . . . justly so . . . over the fact that they are part of the class that gave the student body a terrific Jr. Prom.

Juniors . . . led lives a little less frenzied than did seniors. Had Junior . . . soph . . . party . . . supported chimes project . . . set up committee to solicit funds for it. Sponsored two night dances . . . "Gossamere". . . . Junior Promenade. Theme . . . means material that fairy wings are made from . . . Les Brown band lived up to name of renown . . . assembly one of outstanding productions of spring quarter . . . adventures of two elves . . . Puck and Pandora . . . their attempts to bring spring and love.

Beauty and politics were well mixed with Beryl Slater and Carol Groshell answering roll call as Jr. Leg. Council representatives.

The Jr. Class float found the goal and walked away with the prize for the most original float in Homecoming competition.

We want chimes donations was the plea of these stalwart workers (seated) Beth Hainsworth, Joan Worsley, Joann Penrod, Ruth Adams, (standing) Wes Craig, chairman; Val Parke, and Grant Grover.

Sophomore Activities

A growing tradition of the secretaries elected by this class is expressed as Dallas Merrell admires Mary Ann Treharne's diamond.

Keeping the Sophomore class history is the job of (l to r) Stan Michelsen, chairman; Carol MacKay, Gay Knight, Marjorie Bown, and Grant Bigelow as members of the Scrapbook Committee.

Soph Loan Fund Ball . . . clear profit of $500. Ambitious sophs . . . sponsors of new tennis courts . . . put in free labor on them. Joe Armstrong and Doug Rather were the Sophomore "voice" on the Legislative Council.

Terry O'Brien was easily beguiled by Muriel Gale's "harping" during the Sophomore Loan Fund Assembly.

Sophomores found Chimes Committee collectors knocking at their doors. With Jay Empey, chairman; Maurine Zabriskie, secretary; and Doug Rather, business manager, spurring on their hard working committee.

Congregation joins in song at Sunday School meeting.

Cosmo and the Cougarettes do their part to entertain basketball fans.

Dear Bob, It's been swell knowing you this year. I've enjoyed talking and arguing with you all those times. We'll miss your steadying influence in the dorm next year, but maybe we'll get by. When my kids come up here, I'll make them take Japanese from you.

In Dedication . .

We dedicate this book of memories to those who have made these memories possible—the tithe-payers of the L.D.S. Church. As students we are greatly indebted to those who have sacrificed to found and sustain this growing university. May we continue, in years to come, this fine precedent and help those who follow us.

Our goal has been to provide you, the student, with a factual and artistic resume of the past year's activities at B.Y.U. To accomplish this we have attempted to gather the finest in photography, art and writing; and to produce a book with logical organization of content. We have devoted much effort to minimize errors; please accept our apology for those we have missed in our checking.

Dear Bob,

I am really sorry. - or I mean I am really sorry to see you go. I will always remember the fine association with all the fellows here in the dorm. It really means a lot to me to have friends like you. I hope to see you around a lot next year. I see we all need to wish you luck, because fellows like you don't need it to go a long way in life.

Best Wishes,

Rex Arnett

Well, bye bye, be good and be careful. It looks like the rule of Folley and Stephens is about to come to an end. When I get to be Pres. I'll let you be Japanese Ambassador + when you're Pres. I'd like to be Gov. of Washington

See if you can arrange it.

~~Love~~ yours truly
I give up,

Donnelly

Dear Bob,
as much as I've kidded you and all, it has been great knowing you. You have been a living testimony to me that in order to accomplish God's will, one must be patient. It gave me a bigger thrill than you know to see you come into the Church. I have witnessed some great & beautiful transformations in your character since then. They're hard to see, but they're there. God will bless you for your acts - I know for a fact. See you ~~one~~ someday I hope.

Someday I hope.

It certainly has been fun knowing you. I think of you and summer school most of the any other time. It was really a hell to say the least. How about all the meals we all consumed about at the I. S.
"Capitonia", especially the Montford night. How there was the right we all rode to Salt Lake to see Gene with the "West".
Good luck in all your work
to do

Sincerely

Sincerely,
 Your Affectionate
 Friend

The end of another year has come -
and I am glad to see
you all well and happy.
I hope you will have a very successful year.
I am glad to hear of your success in your studies.
